

The Copper Love Essence With Vedanta in Den Haag

Essence experienced through the heart radiates through the prism of Love, becoming Essential Love Dimensions, Personal and Impersonal Loves. The Copper Love is belongs to the spectrum of the Personal Loves. It is an authentic love and the love for truth. In this love we become bravehearts. We are not bound by fear and compromise, but we step up to truth out of the love for truth. We follow the basic honesty of our heart. We become lionhearted and wide-chested, ready to embrace all that is there without preference. The heart becomes strong, free of collapse and the lie of the personality, a conscious heart, a soldier of love, devoted to being..
